Re: Crescenzo v. Unemployment Insurance Appeal Board
C.A. No. S11A-03-006 RFS

Dear Ms. Crescenzo and Mr. Ellis:

Claimant Grace Crescenzo has appealed a recoupment decision of the Unemployment Insurance Appeal Board ("Board").

The record shows that Claimant filed two claims for unemployment benefits within several months of each other. A claims deputy determined that Claimant is responsible for the repayment of benefits from both periods of time. The appeals referee held a hearing and affirmed. Claimant's submission on appeal to the Board argued both claims. However, the Board addressed only one of the claims.

For this reason, the record before the Court is incomplete, and the case is remanded to the Board to resolve both of the claims.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Very truly yours,

Richard F. Stokes
